COMMERCIAL.

Messrs. Williams, Dimond & Co's circular contains all the information regarding the foreign sugar market:—

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15, 1884.

Dear Sir,—Our last circular was dated Nov 1st, per Mariposa.

SUGAR.—Our latest advices from New York of the 8th inst, report that no business has been done for a week, owing to the closing of several of the refineries for cleaning up, and also to the almost total suspension of business of all kinds during Presidential week.

The tone of the market has also been easy in consequence of unfavorable advices from both Europe and the West Indies; although there is no reason to believe that purchases could be made at any concession from the prices previously paid. The statistical situation of the market is good, and importers are disposed to hold their stocks for full prices; but until the market again opens quotations must be called nominal on the basis of 5.62 to 5.69 for 96 per cent test. Total stock in four ports U S is now 121,000 tons under the highest point of 1884, but still 41,000 tons in excess of the same time last year.

Distribution for year is 120,000 tons over previous one.

London, Nov 7th,—Cane sugar dull, tone depressing. Beet, weak and declining at 11s.

RICE.—Market is in a very depressed condition. No Eastern demand. Few sales to territories. Local sales, 2000 bags @ 4 1/2 cash, @ 4 1/4 sixty days.

FLOUR.—G G extra family, $4.30 f o b. E1 Dorado, $3.95 f o b.

BARLEY.—No 1 feed $1 per cbl f o b.

GROUND BARLEY.—$2.50 per ton f o b.

BRAN.—$1.75 per ton f o b.

OATS.—Fair, $1.15; medium, $1.35. Choice $1.55 f o b.

HAY.—Wild out, compressed, $17 f o b. Wheat and out, $16 f o b. Large bales, $17 to $18.

LIME.—$1.50 per bbl.

CHARTERS.—Rates have further declined handy from having been re-chartered at 30s, Cork, U. K. Last week, 27s, 6d, Liverpool and Dublin. Tonnage continues to accumulate. At present rate tonnage can hardly be moved without loss, and a number of ships have gone into winter quarters.

EXCHANGE.—London, 60 days sight, $4.80. N Y sight 1/4 per cent.

We remain, dear sirs,

Yours, faithfully,

WILLIAMS, DIMOND & CO.

TUESDAY, NOV. 25, 1884.

Business has not been brisk of late, but it is reasonable to infer that from the low rate of exchange now ruling, a steady improvement may be looked for. By the S. S. Alameda the Government received $200,000 in U. S. gold coin.

The only arrivals during the week were the O S Alameda from San Francisco, and the P M S S Zealandia from the Colonies.

The departures were the bark Centaur for Hongkong, and the S S Zealandia for San Francisco.

TO MY DAUGHTER.

[H. C. Bunner.]

The blossoms she gave him—indeed, they were fair;

And grateful the odor they cast on the air—

And he put them in water, and set them anigh

His little round window that looked on the sky.

And the blush of those blossoms, their pleasant perfume,

Made a sweet little spot in a dull little room—

Made a sweet little spot for a day and an hour.
